Awards/Recognition

- The delegate body bestowed Life Member status upon Pat Hammond, a former member of the OSEA Board of Directors.
 - President Tim Stoelb gave the President's Award to Richard Doyle. As president of Parkrose Chapter 44, Doyle kept the chapter focused as it fought outsourcing of student transportation and an unfair labor practice by its district. Parkrose won both battles.
 - Linda Ray, a member of Retired Oregon School Employees (ROSE) and a former member of the OSEA Board of Directors, was presented the Government Relations Member Advocate Award. Ray is a longtime government relations activist at the state and federal level.
 - Also recognized was Leanna Hakala, who was honored for her stint as chair of and service to Retired Oregon School Employees (ROSE).
